RiverLeigh HR Consulting works to create a thriving workplace where business owners, managers and employees are equipped and supported to maintain a successful business.

The approach is flexible and includes retainers, on-site work, specific HR project work and pay as you go arrangements. A friendly, reliable relationship you can trust to deal with the complexities of employment law and employee management with you.

Services provided by Lynn Schofield MCIPD and her business associates are designed according to your specific requirements.

"Lynn sorted us out with a great service agreement with her partners, Sentient. I now have access to all the letter guidelines and documents the business could ever need. Lynn's help, support and advice has been invaluable. As a Practice Manager in a busy legal practice, Lynn has helped me stay on track to install updated contracts, policies and procedures and with her help, we are confident to tackle the really tricky employee issues."
