

Specialist assistance to companies and individuals experiencing financial difficulty.

- Financial Restructuring
- Operation & Crisis Management
- Risk Management
- Corporate Insolvency Solutions
- Recovery Investigation Services

Phil started working in the insolvency profession in 1977 and after a successful career with three leading firms, joined Carter Clark in 2005.

He has dealt with all aspects of both corporate and individual insolvency including major trading receiverships and administrations as well as advising on the sales of insolvent businesses to maximise the return to creditors.

In addition, Phil has assisted with asset recovery and investigations in major fraud cases which involved ultimately giving evidence at several Crown courts.

With well in excess of 40 years experience there are not many scenarios that he hasn't either advised on or dealt with – including advising / acting for company directors in actions brought against them by other liquidators / Administrators.
